I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Imani Whitfield, Shawanna McCoy, and Josey Parsons Aughtman (“Plaintiffs” or the “Class Representatives”), through their counsel, Milstein, Jackson, Fairchild, & Wade, LLP, Golomb & Honik, and Bursor & Fisher, P.A. (“Class Counsel”), respectfully submit this memorandum of points and authorities in support of their motion for approval of an award of attorneys’ fees, reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses, and payment of incentive awards in connection with the classwide settlement of this action.

Pursuant to the Stipulation of Settlement (the “Settlement Agreement”),¹ Defendant Yes To, Inc. (“Yes To” or “Defendant”) will pay $750,000 into a Settlement Fund in cash for the settlement of all claims in this action. Settlement Agreement ¶ 1.21. The Settlement Agreement defines the Settlement Class to include:

All persons in the United States who purchased or used the Yes To Grapefruit Vitamin C Glow-Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask. Excluded from this definition are the Released Persons, any person or entity that purchased the Yes To Grapefruit Vitamin C Glow-Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask for purposes of resale and not for his/her/its own consumption (i.e., “Resellers”), and any judicial officer assigned to this case.

Id. ¶ 1.20. The Settlement Agreement includes a $3.00 per claim payout for Settlement Class Members for up to six Masks, subject to pro rata upward or downward adjustment, depending on the number of claims filed. Id. ¶ 2.4(a). The deadline to make a claim is August 13, 2021.

This is an excellent recovery for Settlement Class Members. The $750,000

1 payout by Defendant exceeds the approximate total retail sales of the affected 2 products in the United States. Unsurprisingly, the response to the Settlement has 3 been overwhelmingly positive: to date, there have been zero opt-outs or objections.
 4 The deadline to opt-out is August 13, 2021 and the deadline to object is June 29, 5 2021.

6 Class Counsel requests that the Court approve a total payment of one-third of 7 the Settlement Fund ($250,000.00) in attorneys' fees and as reimbursement of costs 8 and expenses. As explained below, both the percentage of the benefit method and 9 the lodestar technique confirm that this request for attorneys' fees and expenses is 10 fair, reasonable, and supported by the law of this Circuit. Class Counsel collectively 11 worked 507.15 hours on this case for a total lodestar, at current billing rates, of 12 $279,820. Kopel Decl. ¶ 2, Grunfeld Decl. ¶ 7, Wade Decl. ¶ 16. Plaintiffs' 13 requested fee thus represents a negative multiplier of 0.89, well within reason.
 14 Furthermore, Class Counsel's relatively low expenses of just $6,055.41—costs that 15 were necessary to the prosecution of this case, and which were carefully and 16 reasonably expended—demonstrate how efficiently they litigated this action. Kopel 17 Decl. ¶ 5, Grunfeld Decl. ¶ 13, Wade Decl. ¶ 22.

18 Finally, Plaintiffs request that the Court award each of them a service award in 19 the amount of $5,000 (for a total of $15,000) to account for the significant time and 20 effort they invested in this case on behalf of the Class.

21 II. BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

22 A. Summary of Allegations and Defenses

23 Yes To marketed the beauty Mask for remediation of “dull & uneven skin” 24 and advertised that “[t]his mask will make your skin care fantasies come true, as it 25 helps reveal a bright, glowing, naturally more even-looking complexion.” ECF 23 26 (Consolidated Amended Complaint (“CCAC”)), ¶ 23. Defendant also claimed:
 27 “Your skin will look great in selfies with this mask on AND off!” Id. But contrary 28 to these claims, the Mask—which was marketed to target young women and girls—

1 did the opposite. Id. Specifically, when the Mask was purchased and subsequently 2 used by unsuspecting customers in accordance with Yes To’s instructions for use, it 3 resulted in adverse reactions including severe facial skin irritation, redness, burning, 4 blistering, swelling and pain. Id. ¶ 3. Each of the Plaintiffs experienced severe skin 5 irritation and burning after using the Mask. Id. ¶¶ 48-55.

6 Defendant’s main defenses pertain to its conduct after consumers began 7 complaining about the mask: Defendant purportedly initiated the process of halting 8 distribution of the Mask and pulling the Mask from store shelves. Id. ¶¶ 38-44. For 9 example, Defendant’s webpage for the Mask has sporadically stated that the product 10 had been “discontinued” due to “reports of skin irritation,” and advised purchasers to 11 return the Product or call Yes To directly if it had been used. Id. Based on the data 12 that Defendant provided, approximately 243,000 units were sold at retail, and the 13 approximate revenue for the Mask was nearly $735,000. ECF 41-1 ¶ 18. Based on 14 Class Counsel’s research, the Mask retailed for less than $4 per unit. Id.

15 B. The Litigation

16 On January 24, 2020, Plaintiff Imani Whitfield commenced an action entitled 17 Whitfield v. Yes To, Inc. (United States District Court, Central District of California, 18 Case No. 2:20-cv-763) (the “Action”), as a proposed class action, asserting claims 19 for breach of express warranty, breach of implied warranty, violation of 20 Pennsylvania’s Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law, 73 P.S. §§ 21 201-1, et seq. (“UTPCPL”), fraudulent concealment, fraud, unjust enrichment, and 22 conversion. Plaintiff Whitfield alleged the Mask caused skin irritation and/or burns 23 to her face.

24 On February 6, 2020, Josey Parsons Aughtman commenced an action entitled 25 Aughtman v. Yes To, Inc. (United States District Court, Central District of California, 26 Case No 2:20-cv-01223), as a proposed class action, asserting similar allegations 27 about the Mask causing her to suffer burns and irritation on her face as a result of 28 using the Mask. The Aughtman action alleged claims for Violations of Consumer

1 Legal Remedies Act (CLRA), Violations of False Advertising Law (FAL), 2 Violations of Unfair Competition Law (UCL) ‘Unfair’ and ‘Fraudulent’ Prongs, 3 Violations of Unfair Competition Law (UCL) ‘Unlawful’ Prong, Breach of Implied 4 Warranty of Merchantability, and Breach of Implied Warranty of Fitness for a 5 Particular Purpose.

6 On February 19, 2020, Plaintiffs Imani Whitfield and Shawanna McCoy filed 7 a First Amended Complaint asserting the same allegations that the Mask caused 8 facial irritation and/or burns, and advanced the same claims, adding additional causes 9 of action for violation of CLRA, UCL, and FAL. ECF 9.

10 On March 20, 2020, Plaintiffs Imani Whitfield and Shawanna McCoy filed a 11 Second Amended Complaint asserting the same claims and adding a prayer for 12 damages for the CLRA claim. ECF 20.

13 On March 17, 2020, the Whitfield action was consolidated with the related 14 Aughtman action. ECF 19. On May 15, 2020, Plaintiffs Imani Whitfield, Shawanna 15 McCoy, and Josey Parsons Aughtman filed the CCAC, asserting the same claims for 16 relief as in the FAC and SAC. ECF 23.

17 Defendant answered the CCAC on June 12, 2020, denying liability. ECF 25.
18 Plaintiffs then propounded formal requests for production of documents.

19 On September 4, 2020, the Parties filed their Joint Report Rule 26(f) 20 Discovery Plan. ECF 30. This was followed shortly on September 10, 2020 by the 21 Court ordering the case to a private mediator. ECF 32. The same day, the Court 22 released a scheduling order for the upcoming trial. ECF 33.

23 C. Settlement Negotiations and Preliminary Approval

24 Substantial settlement negotiations took place between the Parties. In addition 25 to informal settlement discussions, on November 11, 2020, the Parties remotely 26 attended a video mediation with Jill Sperber Esq. of Judicate West. ECF 41-1 ¶ 6; 27 ECF 41-2 ¶ 8. After a full day of hard-fought negotiations at mediation, the Parties 28 were able to reach a resolution. Id. All settlement discussions were at arms-length.

1 Id.

2 On January 28, 2021, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval, and a 3 hearing was held on February 26, 2021. ECF Nos. 41, 42, 46. The Court granted 4 preliminary approval on March 1, 2021. ECF 47. Later that day, the Court issued an 5 Amended Order because the scanned copy of the Order was illegible on one line of 6 the last page. ECF 48 (the “Preliminary Approval Order”).

7 III. TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

8 A. The Settlement Class Definition

9 For purposes of the Settlement only, the Court granted the parties’ request to 10 conditionally certify the following Settlement Class:

11 All persons in the United States who purchased or used the Yes To 12 Grapefruit Vitamin C Glow-Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask.

13 ECF 48 at ¶ 1. See also Agreement §1.20. Excluded from this definition are the 14 Released Persons, any person or entity that purchased the Yes To Grapefruit Vitamin 15 C Glow-Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask for purposes of resale and not for his/her/its 16 own consumption (i.e., “Resellers”), and any judicial officer assigned to this case.

17 Id.

18 B. Benefits to Settlement Class Members

19 Yes To will make a total cash payment of $750,000. Agreement ¶ 2.1. If final 20 approval is granted, money from the cash payment (the “Settlement Fund”) will be 21 used to pay the following, in this order: (1) the costs to give notice of the settlement 22 and administer claims; (2) reasonable attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses 23 approved by the Court; (3) any Court-approved service awards to Plaintiffs; and 24 (4) eligible claims by Settlement Class Members. Agreement §§1.21, 2.3.

25 1. Reimbursement for Masks Purchased

26 Settlement Class Members who submit valid claims may recover $3.00 for 27 each Mask he or she purchased or used, up to a maximum of six (6) Masks.
28

1 Declaration of Scott Fenwick concurrently filed herewith (“Fenwick Decl.”) at Ex. A 2 (Long Form Notice); Ex. C (Short Form Notice); Ex. B (Claim Form). Claims will 3 be paid without requiring proof of purchase. Id. at Ex. B (Claim Form).²

4 If the amount of cash available for the Settlement Fund is insufficient to pay 5 all valid Settlement Class Member Claims (after payment of the Fee and Expense 6 Award, Notice and Other Administrative Costs, and the Incentive Award), individual 7 payment amounts for Claims shall be reduced on a pro-rata basis. Id., Agreement 8 ¶ 2.4(a). Similarly, receipt of total valid Settlement Class Member Claims less than 9 the available portion of the Settlement Fund will increase the cash payout for each 10 claimant on a pro rata basis. Id., ¶ 2.7. See also id. ¶ 2.3(d).

11 If any unpaid funds from uncleared settlement checks remain in the Settlement 12 Fund, Class Counsel will make an application to the Court to seek approval for a 13 proposed disposition of the unpaid funds from uncleared checks. Id. ¶ 2.8. The 14 unpaid funds will remain in the Settlement Fund pending further order of the Court.
15 Id.

16 2. Payment of Incentive Awards and Attorneys’ Fees and Costs

17 The Settlement permits service awards of $5,000 each for Plaintiffs Whitfield, 18 McCoy, and Aughtman. Agreement ¶ 2.3(c). The Incentive Awards ($15,000 total) 19 will compensate Plaintiffs for their time and effort in the case, and for the risks they 20 undertook in prosecuting the Action. Id.

21 The Settlement also allows Class Counsel to file a motion requesting 22 attorneys’ fees of up to one-third of the Settlement Fund ($250,000) plus litigation 23 expenses ($6,055.41). Id. ¶ 3.1. The amount requested in fees represents a negative 24 multiplier, and necessary costs were incurred, including filing fees and the cost of 25 mediation.

26 _____
27 ² Claimants must attest that “The information on this claim form is true and correct to 28 the best of my knowledge and belief.” See Finegan Decl., Ex. B (Claim Form)

3. The Notice Program and Settlement Administration

The parties selected and the Court appointed Heffler Claims Group (“Heffler”) as the Settlement Administrator. Agreement ¶1.19; ECF 48 at ¶ 13.³ Heffler has been responsible for administering administrative tasks necessary to implement the terms of the Agreement, including (a) notifying the appropriate state and federal officials about the settlement, (b) arranging for distribution of Class Notice (in the form approved by the Court) and Claim Forms (in a form ordered by the Court) to Settlement Class Members, (c) handling inquiries from Settlement Class Members and/or forwarding such written inquiries to Class Counsel and Defendant’s Counsel, (d) receiving and maintaining on behalf of the Court and the Parties any Settlement Class Member correspondence regarding requests for exclusion from the settlement, (e) establishing the Settlement Website that posts notices, Claim Forms and other related documents, (f) receiving and processing claims and distributing payments to Settlement Class Members, and (g) otherwise assisting with implementation and administration of the Stipulation terms. Id. ¶ 4.5.

D. The Court Granted Preliminary Approval of the Settlement and Notice to the Settlement Class Was Disseminated.

The Settlement Class Notice Program was designed to give the best notice practicable, tailored to reach putative Settlement Class Members, and reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise them of the Settlement and their right to make a claim for money, opt-out, or object. Fenwick Dec. ¶ 9. The straightforward, single page Claim Form is easy for Settlement Class Members to understand. Id. at Ex. B (Claim Form).

After the Court entered the Preliminary Approval Order, the Parties and Heffler carried out their duties in connection with the administration of the settlement as set forth in the Agreement. (1) digital advertisements (banner ads) to be

24 IV. THE CLRA PROVIDES FOR A MANDATORY FEE AWARD

25 The Class Representative has brought claims against Defendant under various 26 theories, including under California's Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Civil Code

27 _____ 28 ⁴ In addition to the Orange County Register, the Short Form Notice appeared twice in the San Jose Mercury News. Id

1 §§ 1750, et seq. (the “CLRA”). For CLRA claims, an award of fees to the prevailing 2 party is mandatory under Civil Code § 1780(e), which provides: “The court shall 3 award court costs and attorney’s fees to a prevailing plaintiff in litigation filed 4 pursuant to this section.” As the California Court of Appeal has explained in 5 construing this provision:

6 The word ‘shall’ is usually deemed mandatory, unless a mandatory 7 construction would not be consistent with the legislative purpose 8 underlying the statute.” (West Shield Investigations and Sec.
 9 Consultants v. Superior Court (2000) 82 Cal. App. 4th 935, 949, 98 10 Cal.Rptr.2d 612.) Our Supreme Court has observed that “the 11 availability of costs and attorney’s fees to prevailing plaintiffs is integral 12 to making the CLRA an effective piece of consumer legislation, 13 increasing the financial feasibility of bringing suits under the statute.” 14 (Broughton v. Cigna Healthplans (1999) 21 Cal. 4th 1066, 1085, 90 Cal. Rptr. 2d 334, 998 P.2d 67.) Thus, a mandatory construction of the word “shall” in section 1780(d) is consistent with the legislative purpose underlying the statute.

15 Kim v. Euromotors West/The Auto Gallery, 149 Cal. App. 4th 170, 178 (2007).

16 Here, Class Counsel have negotiated a settlement that is likely to provide 17 Settlement Class Members (depending on the final number of claims) with payouts 18 exceeding a full refund of their purchases for the Masks. Plaintiffs have thus 19 succeeded by realizing their litigation objectives in large part. As the Settlement 20 Class is the “prevailing party,” a fee award to Class Counsel is mandatory under the 21 CLRA. Graciano v. Robinson Ford Sales, 144 Cal. App. 4th 140, 150-51 (2006).

22 V. CLASS COUNSEL’S REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES AWARD IS 23 FAIR AND REASONABLE

24 Under Ninth Circuit standards, a District Court may award attorneys’ fees 25 under either the “percentage-of-the-benefit” method or the “lodestar” method.
 26 Fischel v. Equitable Life Assur. Soc’y, 307 F.3d 997, 1006 (9th Cir. 2002); Hanlon v.
 27 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1029 (9th Cir. 1998). Class Counsel’s fee request is 28 fair and reasonable under either of these methods.

1 A. The Percentage Of The Benefit Method

2 Under the common fund doctrine, courts typically award attorneys' fees based 3 on a percentage of the total settlement. See State of Florida v. Dunne, 915 F.2d 542, 4 545 (9th Cir. 1990); see also In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 (9th 5 Cir. 1995) (affirming attorneys' fee award of 33% of the recovery); Morris v.
6 Lifescan, Inc., 54 F. App'x 663, 664 (9th Cir. 2003) (affirming attorneys' fee award 7 of 33% of the recovery).

8 1. The Total Value Of The Settlement Fund Is $750,000

9 To calculate attorneys' fees based on the percentage of the benefit, the Court 10 must first determine the value of the Settlement Fund. In doing so, the Court must 11 include the value of the benefits conferred to the Class, including any attorneys' fee, 12 expenses, and notice and claims administration payments to be made. See, e.g., 13 Staton v. Boeing, 327 F.3d 938, 972-74 (9th Cir. 2003); Hartless v. Clorox Co., 273
14 F.R.D. 630, 645 (S.D. Cal. 2011), aff'd, 473 F. App'x. 716 (9th Cir. 2012). Here, 15 because the Settlement Agreement creates a common fund of $750,000, that is the 16 amount that should be used for a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis.

17 2. The Requested Fee is Reasonable

18 The Ninth Circuit has established 25% of a common fund as a starting 19 benchmark under a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1029.
20 However, the 25% benchmark would be unreasonably low here. See id. at 148 ("The 21 25% benchmark rate, although a starting point for analysis, may be inappropriate in 22 some cases."); see also Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v. Graulity, 886 F.2d 268, 272-23 73 (9th Cir. 1989) (explaining that the benchmark should be "adjusted upward or 24 downward" based on the unique circumstances of the case).

25 The Ninth Circuit has identified five factors that are relevant in determining 26 whether requested attorneys' fees in a common fund case are reasonable: (a) the 27 results achieved; (b) the risk of litigation; (c) the skill required and the quality of 28 work, (d) market rates as reflected by awards made in similar cases; and (e) the 1 contingent nature of the fee and the financial burden carried by the plaintiffs.

2 Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-50 (9th Cir. 2002). Each of these 3 factors points to a higher award in this case. Here, a fee of 33.3% is reasonable for 4 the reasons set forth below.

5 a. Class Counsel Achieved Extraordinary Results For The 6 Class

7 The benefit obtained for the Class is foremost among the factors in 8 determining a proper fee. In this case, the significant monetary benefits achieved 9 weighs heavily in favor of an upward adjustment from the 25% benchmark. In re
10 Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 942 (citing Hensley, 461 U.S. at 434-36). As noted above, 11 Defendant's payout in this settlement exceeds the total retail value of money paid by 12 Settlement Class Members for the Masks. Because the Settlement provides a 13 substantial monetary benefit to Settlement Class Members above and beyond what 14 would typically be expected in a class settlement this factor weighs heavily in favor 15 of the reasonableness of the requested fee award.

16 b. Plaintiffs' Claims Carried Substantial Litigation Risk

17 The second Vizcaino factor looks to the risk and novelty of the claims at issue.
18 Both are certainly present here. Indeed, Class Counsel undertook significant 19 financial risk in prosecuting this case.

20 Although Plaintiffs had confidence in their claims, it was clear that Defendant 21 would present a vigorous defense, and that there could be no assurance that the Class 22 would be certified or prevail at trial. It was also likely that Defendant would file a 23 motion for summary judgment that would present significant risks to the Class.
24 Even if Plaintiffs' claims could proceed past class certification and summary 25 judgment, this case would ultimately devolve into an uncertain "battle of the 26 experts." Defendant would likely present testing from experts who would claim that 27 its Masks were not defective. A favorable outcome was not assured. By settling, 28 Plaintiffs and the Class avoid these risks, as well as the delays and risks of a lengthy

1 trial and appellate process. The Settlement will provide Settlement Class Members 2 with monetary benefits that are immediate, certain and substantial, and avoid the 3 obstacles that might have prevented them from obtaining relief.

4 c. Class Counsel Skillfully Prosecuted This Action

5 The litigation of a complex, multiparty, nationwide class action “requires 6 unique legal skills and abilities.” In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d.
7 1036, 1047 (N.D. Cal 2008). However, the “single clearest factor reflecting the 8 quality of class counsels’ services to the class are the results obtained.” In re 9 Heritage Bond Litig., 2005 WL 1594389, at *12 (C.D. Cal. June 10, 2005). The 10 quality of opposing counsel is also important in evaluating the quality of the work 11 done by Class Counsel. Cohorst v. BRE Props., Inc., 2011 WL 7061923, at *20 12 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2011).

13 Here, Class Counsel faced an uphill battle not only in their pursuit of the facts 14 in this complicated case (including but not limited to Defendant’s stopping the 15 distribution and voluntary partial recall of the Masks), but in the formidable 16 opposition by experienced class action defense counsel. Despite these obstacles, 17 Class Counsel succeeded in achieving a settlement benefit for the Class exceeding 18 the approximate total retail sales of the Masks during the class period. The ability of 19 Class Counsel to obtain such a favorable settlement in these circumstances supports 20 the requested fee award.

21 d. Market Rates As Reflected By Awards In Similar Cases

22 Although the Ninth Circuit has established a benchmark fee of 25%, it is not 23 uncommon for courts in this Circuit to award fees even higher than 25% in common 24 fund cases. For example, when awarding 32.8% of the settlement fund for fees and 25 costs, Judge Patel explained: “absent extraordinary circumstances that suggest 26 reasons to lower or increase the percentage, the rate should be set at 30%[,]” as this 27 will “encourage plaintiffs’ attorneys to move for early settlement, provide 28 predictability for the attorneys and the class members, and reduce the time consumed

1 by counsel and court in dealing with voluminous fee petitions.” In re Activision Sec.
2 Litig., 723 F. Supp. 1373, 1378-79 (N.D. Cal. 1989); see also In re Pac. Enters. Sec.
3 Litig., 47 F.3d at 378-79 (affirming attorneys’ fee of 33% of the recovery); Williams, 4 129 F.3d at 1027 (33.33% of total fund awarded); Morris, 54 Fed. App’x at 663
5 (affirming fee award of 33% of the recovery); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc., 6 266 F.R.D. 482, 492 (E.D. Cal. 2010) (citing to five class actions where federal 7 district courts approved attorney fee awards ranging from 30% to 33%); Martin v.
8 AmeriPride Servs., Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, at *23 (S.D. Cal. June 9, 9 2011) (noting that “courts may award attorney’s fees in the 30%-40% range”); 10 Singer v. Becton Dickinson & Co., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 53416, at *22-23 (S.D.
11 Cal. June 1, 2010) (approving attorney fee award of 33.33% of the common fund and 12 holding that award was similar to awards in three other cases where fees ranged from 13 33.33% to 40%); Ingalls v. Hallmark Mktg. Corp., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 131081 14 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 16, 2009) (awarding 33.33% fee on a $5.6 million common fund 15 settlement); Rippee v. Boston Mkt. Corp., No. 05-CV-1359 TM (JMA) (Dkt. No. 70, 16 at 7) (S.D. Cal. Oct. 10, 2006) (awarding a 40% fee on a $3.75 million in a common 17 fund settlement).

18 This is particularly true given that the requested 33.3% would result in a 19 negative multiplier (i.e., a “haircut”) as it is, meaning that a cut down to the 25% 20 benchmark would cause Class Counsel to take an even deeper cut for the time they 21 billed to this matter.

22 e. The Contingent Nature Of The Fee And Financial 23 Burden Borne By Class Counsel

24 The fifth factor cited by Vizcaino is the contingent nature of the fee and the 25 financial burden carried by the plaintiffs. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050. To date, 26 Class Counsel has worked for a year and a half with no payment, and no guarantee of 27 payment absent a successful outcome. Class Counsel also advanced $6,055.41 in 28 out-of-pocket expenses, again with no guarantee of repayment. If the case had

1 advanced through the end of discovery, class certification, summary judgment and 2 trial, these expenses would have increased many-fold, and Class Counsel would have 3 been required to advance these expenses potentially for several years to litigate this 4 action through judgment and appeals.

5 B. The Requested Attorneys' Fees Are Reasonable Under A Lodestar
6 Cross Check

7 Courts in the Ninth Circuit often examine the lodestar calculation as a 8 crosscheck on the percentage fee award to ensure that counsel will not receive a 9 "windfall." Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050. The cross-check analysis is a two-step 10 process. First, the lodestar is determined by multiplying the number of hours 11 reasonably expended by the reasonable rates requested by the attorneys. See Caudle
12 v. Bristow Optical Co., 224 F.3d 1014, 1028 (9th Cir. 2000). Second, the Court 13 determines the multiplier required to match the lodestar to the percentage-of-the-14 fund request made by counsel, and determines whether the multiplier falls within the 15 accepted range for such a case. Here, the lodestar cross-check confirms the 16 reasonableness of the requested fee.

17 As of this filing, Class Counsel has worked 507.15 hours on this case for a 18 total lodestar, at current billing rates, of $279,820.10. Kopel Decl. ¶ 2, Grunfeld 19 Decl. ¶ 7, Wade Decl. ¶ 16. This represents a blended hourly rate of just $551.75, 20 which is well within the bounds of reasonable hourly rates in this District. Kopel 21 Decl. ¶ 12. A fee award of 33.3%, or $250,000 would represent a negative multiplier 22 of 0.89 over the base lodestar fee. Id. ¶ 3; Section IV.C below (discussing the factors 23 supporting the application of a multiplier to Class Counsel's lodestar). This 24 multiplier falls well within the accepted range in the Ninth Circuit, where positive 25 multipliers are routinely awarded, and is reasonable. See, e.g., Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 26 1051 (noting district court cases in the Ninth Circuit approving multipliers as high as 27 19.6); Craft v. County of San Bernardino, 624 F. Supp. 2d 1113, 1125 (C.D. Cal.
28 2008) (approving fee award resulting in a multiplier of 5.2, and collecting similar

1 cases); Steiner v. Am. Broad. Co., Inc., 248 Fed. Appx. 780, 783 (9th Cir. 2007) 2 (approving multiplier of 6.85); 4 Newberg on Class Actions § 14.7 (courts typically 3 approve percentage awards based on lodestar cross-checks of 1.9 to 5.1 or even 4 higher). The modest multiplier provided by the lodestar cross-check here 5 demonstrates that the percentage fee sought by Class Counsel is fair and reasonable.

6 C. The Court May Alternatively Grant The Requested Attorneys’ 7 Fees Under The Lodestar Method

8 Under Ninth Circuit standards, a District Court may also award attorneys’ fees 9 under the “lodestar” method. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1029. The lodestar figure is 10 calculated by multiplying the hours spent on the case by reasonable hourly rates for 11 the region and attorney experience. See, e.g., In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab.
 12 Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 941-42 (9th Cir. 2011); Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1029. The 13 resulting lodestar figure may be adjusted upward or downward by use of a multiplier 14 to account for factors including, but not limited to: (i) the quality of the 15 representation; (ii) the benefit obtained for the class; (iii) the complexity and novelty 16 of the issues presented; and (iv) the risk of nonpayment. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1029; 17 see also Kerr v. Screen Extras Guild, Inc., 526 F.2d 67, 70 (9th Cir. 1975).⁵ Courts 18 typically apply a multiplier or enhancement to the lodestar to account for the 19 substantial risk that class counsel undertook by accepting a case where no payment 20 would be received if the lawsuit did not succeed. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051.

21 1. Class Counsel Spent A Reasonable Number Of Hours On 22 This Litigation At A Reasonable Hourly Rate

23 ⁵ Kerr identifies twelve factors for analyzing reasonable attorneys’ fees:

24 (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the 25 questions involved; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service 26 properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to 27 acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is 28 fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and the results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation, and the ability of the attorneys; (10) the ‘undesirability’ of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12) awards in similar cases.

1 Class Counsel’s declarations describe the extensive work performed in 2 connection with this litigation over the past year and a half. Class Counsel carefully 3 coordinated its work throughout this litigation to avoid any internal duplication of 4 effort, and was thereby able to work very efficiently. To support this request, Class 5 Counsel is separately submitting billing records and summaries showing what work 6 was done and by whom. Kopel Decl., Ex. 1; Grunfeld Decl., Ex. A; Wade Decl.
7 ¶ 16. These records confirm Class Counsel’s efficient billing.

8 The number of hours expended by Class Counsel is also extremely reasonable 9 given the complications involved in litigating this matter. The pre-suit investigation 10 required extensive work. After that came consolidation of the actions, several 11 rounds of pleadings, and protracted settlement negotiations in order to achieve this 12 result for the Class.

13 The blended hourly rates for Class Counsel of $551.75 is also quite 14 reasonable. Class Counsel’s rates are reasonable as compared to rates routinely 15 approved in this District. Johnson v. Saul, 2020 WL 1223539, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Feb.
16 3, 2020) (“[T]he Central District of California has repeatedly found reasonable fees 17 with effective hourly rates exceeding $1,000 per hour”); Radford v. Berryhill, 2017 18 WL 4279217, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 26, 2017) (approving fees amounting to 19 $1,197.92 per hour of attorney time); Palos v. Colvin, 2016 WL 5110243, at *2 20 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 20, 2016) (approving fees amounting to $1,546.39 per hour of 21 attorney time); Daniel v. Astrue, 2009 WL 1941632, at *2-3 (C.D. Cal. July 2, 2009) 22 (approving fees amounting to $1,491.25 per hour of attorney time); McKibben v.
23 McMahon, 2019 WL 1109683, at *14 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 28, 2019) (finding hourly rates 24 of up to $1,230 per hour reasonable depending on attorney experience).

25 2. All Relevant Factors Support The Reasonableness Of Class 26 Counsel’s Fee Request

27 The lodestar analysis is not limited to the simple mathematical calculation of 28 Class Counsel’s base fee. See Morales, supra, 96 F.3d at 363-64. Rather, Class

1 Counsel’s actual lodestar may be enhanced according to those factors that have not 2 been “subsumed within the initial calculation of hours reasonably expended at a 3 reasonable rate.” Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 n.9 (1983) (citation 4 omitted); see also Morales, 96 F.3d at 364. In a historical review of numerous class 5 action settlements, the Ninth Circuit found that lodestar multipliers normally range 6 from 0.6 to 19.6, with most (83%) falling between 1 and 4. See Vizcaino, 290 F.3d
7 at 1051, n.6; Gonzalez v. S. Wine & Spirits of Am. Inc., 2014 WL 1630674, at *5 8 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 24, 2014) (awarding a “1.18 multiplier, taking into account the 9 contingent nature of the case and the delay in class counsel receiving its full fee 10 award”); see In re Washington Public Power Supply System Securities Litig., 19 F.3d 11 at 1300–1301 (noting that “courts have routinely enhanced the lodestar to reflect the 12 risk of non-payment in common fund cases” and finding district court’s failure to 13 apply multiplier to lodestar calculation was abuse of discretion where case was 14 “fraught with risk and recovery was far from certain”); see also Alba Conte & 15 Herbert B. Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 14:03 (3d ed. 1992) (recognizing 16 that multipliers of 1 to 4 are frequently awarded). In considering the reasonableness 17 of attorneys’ fees and any requested multiplier, the Ninth Circuit has directed district 18 courts to consider the time and labor required, the novelty and complexity of the 19 litigation, the skill and experience of counsel, the results obtained, and awards in 20 similar cases. Kerr, 526 F.2d at 70; Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 898-900 (1984).

21 Here, despite the excellent result achieved for the Class, Counsel is requesting 22 an award that will result in a negative multiplier. All of these factors further support 23 the reasonableness of the requested fee award in this action. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 24 1051.

25 a. Novelty and Complexity of this Litigation

26 This case is not a cookie-cutter consumer class action. It is not primarily 27 based on an affirmative misrepresentation, but rather actionable omissions and 28 breaches of implied warranties. Additional complexities were added to due the fact

1 that Yes To conducted a partial recall of the Masks.

2 The novelty and complexity of this litigation therefore further support the 3 reasonableness of Plaintiffs' fee request.

4 b. Class Counsel Provided Exceptional
5 Representation Prosecuting This Complex
6 Case

7 Class Counsel respectfully submits that they have conducted themselves in 8 this action in a professional, diligent and efficient manner. Class Counsel has 9 extensive experience in the field of class action litigation. ECF 41-2 Ex. A (Bursor 10 & Fisher, P.A.'s resume), ECF 41-1 ¶¶ 9-16 (detailing Milstein Jackson Fairchild & 11 Wade, LLP's experience); Id. Ex. 2 (Golomb & Honik resume). Additionally, 12 litigation tasks were allocated to prevent "over lawyering" and inefficiency. The 13 bulk of the work was performed by a small number of attorneys fully familiar with 14 the complex factual and legal issues presented by this litigation. This division of 15 labor permitted the work to be done efficiently, resulting in an economy of service 16 and avoiding duplication of effort.

17 c. Class Counsel Obtained Excellent Class
18 Benefits

19 As discussed above, the Class has received a benefit in this settlement 20 exceeding the approximate retail sales of the Masks at issue. This is essentially full 21 compensation. The lack of opt-outs or objections to date further confirm that Class 22 Counsel obtained a great result for the Class.

23 d. Class Counsel Faced A Substantial Risk Of 24 Nonpayment

25 A critical factor bearing on fee petitions in Ninth Circuit courts is the level of 26 risk of non-payment faced by Class Counsel at the inception of the litigation. See, 27 e.g., Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1048. The contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee 28 recovery, coupled with the uncertainty that any recovery would be obtained, are significant. In re Wash. Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 19 F.3d 1291, 1300 (9th Cir. 1994). In Wash. Pub. Power, the Ninth Circuit recognized that:

2 It is an established practice in the private legal market to 3 reward attorneys for taking the risk of non-payment by 4 paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for 5 winning contingency cases [I]f this “bonus” 6 methodology did not exist, very few lawyers could take on 7 the representation of a class client given the investment of 8 substantial time, effort, and money, especially in light of 9 the risks of recovering nothing.

10 Id. at 1299-1300 (citations omitted) (internal quotations marks omitted).

11 Throughout this case, Class Counsel expended substantial time and costs to 12 prosecute a nationwide class action suit with no guarantee of compensation or 13 reimbursement in the hope of prevailing against a sophisticated Defendant 14 represented by high caliber attorneys. Class Counsel obtained a highly favorable 15 result for the Class, knowing that if its efforts were ultimately unsuccessful, it would 16 receive no compensation or reimbursement for its costs. This fact alone supports the 17 reasonableness of the fee request.

18 VI. CLASS COUNSEL’S EXPENSES WERE REASONABLE AND 19 NECESSARILY INCURRED TO ACHIEVE THE BENEFIT
20 OBTAINED ON BEHALF OF THE CLASS

21 The Ninth Circuit allows recovery of litigation expenses in the context of a 22 class action settlement. See Staton, 327 F.3d at 974. Class Counsel is entitled to 23 reimbursement for standard out-of-pocket expenses that an attorney would ordinarily 24 bill a fee-paying client. See, e.g., Harris v. Marhoefer, 24 F.3d 16, 19 (9th Cir.
25 1994). These expenses include court fees, mediation fees, postage and deliver fees, 26 transportation fees, and other related expenses. Kopel Decl., Ex. 2, Grunfeld Decl., 27 Ex. B, Wade Decl. ¶ 22.

28 Here, Class Counsel incurred out-of-pocket costs and expenses in the aggregate amount of $6,055.41 in prosecuting this litigation on behalf of the Class.
Id. Each of these expenses was necessary and reasonably incurred to bring this case to a successful conclusion, and they reflect market rates for various categories of 1 expenses incurred. Id.

2 VII. THE REQUESTED INCENTIVE AWARD FOR THE CLASS
3 REPRESENTATIVES IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

4 In recognition of her effort on behalf of the Class, and subject to the approval 5 of the Court, Defendant has agreed to pay each of the three Class Representatives 6 $5,000 each as appropriate compensation for their time and effort serving as the class 7 representatives in this litigation.

8 Incentive awards “are fairly typical in class action cases.” Rodriguez v. W.
9 Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 958 (9th Cir. 2009). Such awards “are intended to 10 compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for 11 financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to 12 recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general.” Id. at 958-59.
13 Incentive awards are committed to the sound discretion of the trial court and should 14 be awarded based upon the court’s consideration of, inter alia, the amount of time 15 and effort spent on the litigation, the duration of the litigation and the degree of 16 personal gain obtained as a result of the litigation. See Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield 17 Co., 901 F. Supp. 294, 299 (N.D. Cal. 1995). Incentive awards are appropriate when 18 a class representative will not benefit beyond ordinary class members. For example, 19 where a class representative’s claim makes up “only a tiny fraction of the common 20 fund,” an incentive award is justified. Id., 901 F. Supp. at 299.

21 The requested amount of $5,000 apiece for Plaintiffs is appropriate to 22 compensate them for bringing this action for the benefit the Settlement Class 23 Members. Throughout the litigation, Plaintiffs conferred regularly with Class 24 Counsel to receive updates on the progress of the case and to discuss strategy.
25 Whitfield Decl. ¶ 4, McCoy Decl. ¶ 4, Parsons Aughtman Decl. ¶ 4. They assisted in 26 Class Counsel’s investigation throughout this litigation by providing information on 27 the Masks that they purchased, among other matters. Whitfield Decl. ¶ 2, McCoy 28 Decl. ¶ 2, Parsons Aughtman Decl. ¶ 2. Plaintiffs assisted in drafting the complaints

1 and reviewed them for accuracy before they were filed. Whitfield Decl. ¶ 3, McCoy 2 Decl. ¶ 3, Parsons Aughtman Decl. ¶ 3. Plaintiffs were also intimately involved in 3 the settlement process, and have continued to keep abreast of settlement progress to 4 date. Whitfield Decl. ¶ 5, McCoy Decl. ¶ 5, Parsons Aughtman Decl. ¶ 5. They 5 have taken significant time away from work and personal activities to initiate and 6 litigate this action. And they were prepared to litigate this case to a verdict if 7 necessary. Whitfield Decl. ¶ 7, McCoy Decl. ¶ 7, Parsons Aughtman Decl. ¶ 7.
8 Plaintiffs’ dedication and efforts have conferred a significant benefit on Settlement 9 Class Members across the United States.

10 VIII. CONCLUSION

11 Class Counsel were able to obtain a settlement that represents an excellent 12 result for the Class. This Settlement is the culmination of the determined and skilled 13 work of Class Counsel for more than four years. As a result, Plaintiffs respectfully 14 request that this Court award the following:

- 15 • $250,000 in attorneys’ fees, representing 33.3% of the Settlement Fund;
- 16 • Costs and expenses to Class Counsel of $6,055.41; and
- 17 • Service Awards to Plaintiffs of $5,000 each.

18 For the foregoing reasons, these amounts are fair and reasonable and should be 19 approved.

20 Dated: June 8, 2021

Respectfully submitted,
